Annual Conference 2026

6-8 May, Budapest, Hungary

40 years forward: Learning from the past and the present, leading into the future

Our conference theme

In 2026, we mark a pivotal moment - 40 years since the introduction of the Insolvency Act 1986. The 2026 Annual Conference will celebrate the profession's advances while exploring the evolution that has shaped the restructuring, turnaround and insolvency profession across four decades. Attendees can expect an engaging and thought-provoking programme that reflects on key milestones in our history, celebrating the profession's resilience, innovation and value.

Who will be there

The conference will host around 250 delegates from across the UK's leading restructuring, turnaround and insolvency profession. As well as engaging technical sessions there will also be an exciting range of social and networking activities bringing delegates together. (See page 10 for 2025 attending firms).
